

Let my light shine

Rise and shine

Give God the glory, glory

As I write this reflection, I am still praying “Thy Kingdom Come”, holding five people in prayer that they come to find the love of the Lord Jesus in their lives and one person I will invite to an MU gathering.

The 10 days between Ascension Day and Pentecost are like a mini-Advent, both seasons invite us to pray for “the coming of a gift” and then we wait on God to act. Jesus said, “Stay in the city, until you are clothed with power from on high.” (Lk. 24:48)

So, looking forward to this month of June, there is to be a great celebration of our World-wide Mission: Join in!

“Rise, and shine and give God the glory, glory.

Children of the Lord”

Sing it out loud! To God be all glory!

Joy filled, prayerful action of transformation ending violence, injustice and poverty bringing care to families in adversity; helping them grow strong and hopeful for the future.

So, how have you experienced the burning of God's Holy Spirit in your heart?

I pray “Thy Kingdom Come” in Aramaic, Jesus’ own language,” Teythe malkuthokh.” translates.

“Create your reign of unity now- through our fiery hearts and willing hands”.

Our hearts are on fire with the Pentecostal gifts of God, and our hands respond in movement to channel those gifts to people God places alongside our path of life.

So, the Pentecost call is to be attentive, aware of people close to us and, feeling the warmth of worship in our hearts, reach out willingly to meet their need.

Continue to pray for your 5+1 and be open to the call to be God’s instrument of love, a love the world cannot give (Jn 14:27).
Read Jesus’ prayer Jn :17 for his disciples and put your name within it and bring healing, unity and love.

At a gathering a few weeks ago, I was presented with a candle and then we all sang,

“This little light of mine, I’m going to let it shine,

let it shine, let it shine.

I in my small corner and you in thine.”

and I raised my light high,

Do join in the celebrations and invite others to” join us, join in “See the Pentecostal light glowing, growing stronger day by day across the World.

We join our Melanesian sisters (there is s video attached from Mu sisters in St. Barnabas Cathedral, Honiara, Solomon Islands,)

“When you believe and I believe Together we will strive.
The Holy Spirit will come down.

The MU work will be strong.
The MU work will be strong; The MU work will be strong.
The Holy Spirit will come down, The MU work will be strong,
